SCAMS: KNOW THE SIGNS!

A scammer over the phone or text may:

- Be impatient, abrasive, pushy, or even rude
- Be over-complimentary
- Claim to be a representative of the government, community, business, law enforcement, charity, or a service provider
- Evade your questions
- Try to relate to you on an issue so that you drop your guard
- Gain your trust by having you verify some personal information, then ask you for more
- Try to rush you into a decision before the conversation is over
- Offer a deal that seems “too good to be true”
- Trigger a one-time PIN for you and ask you to read it back
