NEWS FROM PATROL

- Officers responded to a report of an individual who was causing a disturbance at a local business. Upon arrival, officers contacted the individual who appeared to be under the influence of an undetermined substance. While attempting to de-escalate the scene, the individual being questioned became agitated and assaulted a DuPont Officer.
- During a routine traffic stop, an officer confirmed that the driver had an active warrant from the Tacoma Police Department. The driver was arrested.
- Officers assisted Lakewood Police Department with a report of an individual who was waving a weapon around at a park in the City of Lakewood.
- An officer was present at the City of DuPont Farmer's Market.
- A speed emphasis was conducted on Steilacoom DuPont Road and Center Drive. A driver was stopped by an officer on Center Drive speeding 25 miles over the posted speed of 35 miles per hour.

DEPARTMENT NEWS

- Officers completed required online training.

AN IMPORTANT TIP FROM SOUTH SOUND 911!

Accidentally called 911? Don't hang up!

Even if it was a mistake, stay on the line and let us know you're okay. Hanging up means we have to call you back and that takes time away from answering incoming 911 calls.
